HUMANS, ENVIRONMENT AND CHRONOLOGY
OF THE LATE GLACIAL
OF THE NORTH EUROPEAN PLAIN

Proceedings of Workshop 14
(Commission XXXII »The Final Palaeolithic of the Great European Plain / Le Paléolithique Final de la Grande Plaine Européenne«)
Authors

Martin Street • Thomas Terberger • Nick Barton

Foreword

Roger M. Jacobi • Thomas F. G. Higham • Tom C. Lord
Improving the chronology of the human occupation of Britain during the Late Glacial

Olivier Bignon
Regional populations and exploitation of large herbivores in the Paris Basin during the Late Glacial: In search of an integrated model

Rebecca Miller • Pierre Noiret
Recent results for the Belgian Magdalenian

Marta Pottowicz-Bobak
Magdalenian settlement in Poland in the light of recent research

Jacek Kabacinski • Iwona Sobkowiak-Tabaka
Big game versus small game hunting - subsistence strategies of the Hamburgian culture

Marc De Bie - Marijn Van Gils - Koen Deforce
Human occupation in a Late Glacial landscape:
The Federmessergruppen site complex at Lommel Maatheide (Belgium)

Erik Brinch Petersen
The human settlement of southern Scandinavia 12500-8700 cal BC

Lars Larsson
After the cold: Mammal finds, hunting and cultural affinities during the Preboreal

Przemystaw Bobrowski
The exploitation of local sources of flint on the Polish Plain during the Final Palaeolithic

Eva David • Jacques Pelegrin
Possible late glacial bone »retouchers« in the Baltic Mesolithic:
the contribution of experimental tests with lithics on bone tools

Michal Kobusiewicz
The Lyngby point as a cultural marker

Krzysztof Kowalski • Tomasz Ptonka
New ornamented artefacts from the Polish Lowland and Final Palaeolithic symbolism

Thomas Terberger • Nick Barton • Martin Street
The Late Glacial reconsidered - recent progress and interpretations